MYTH VS FACT

What an AI co-founder is not

~~"It's a person."~~

~~"It's autopilot."~~

~~"It's a smarter model."~~

~~"It replaces your accountant."~~

~~"You couldn't just ask Claude."~~

ALL MYTHS

All five are wrong. Swipe for what it actually is.

MYTH

People assume

“It's a person.”

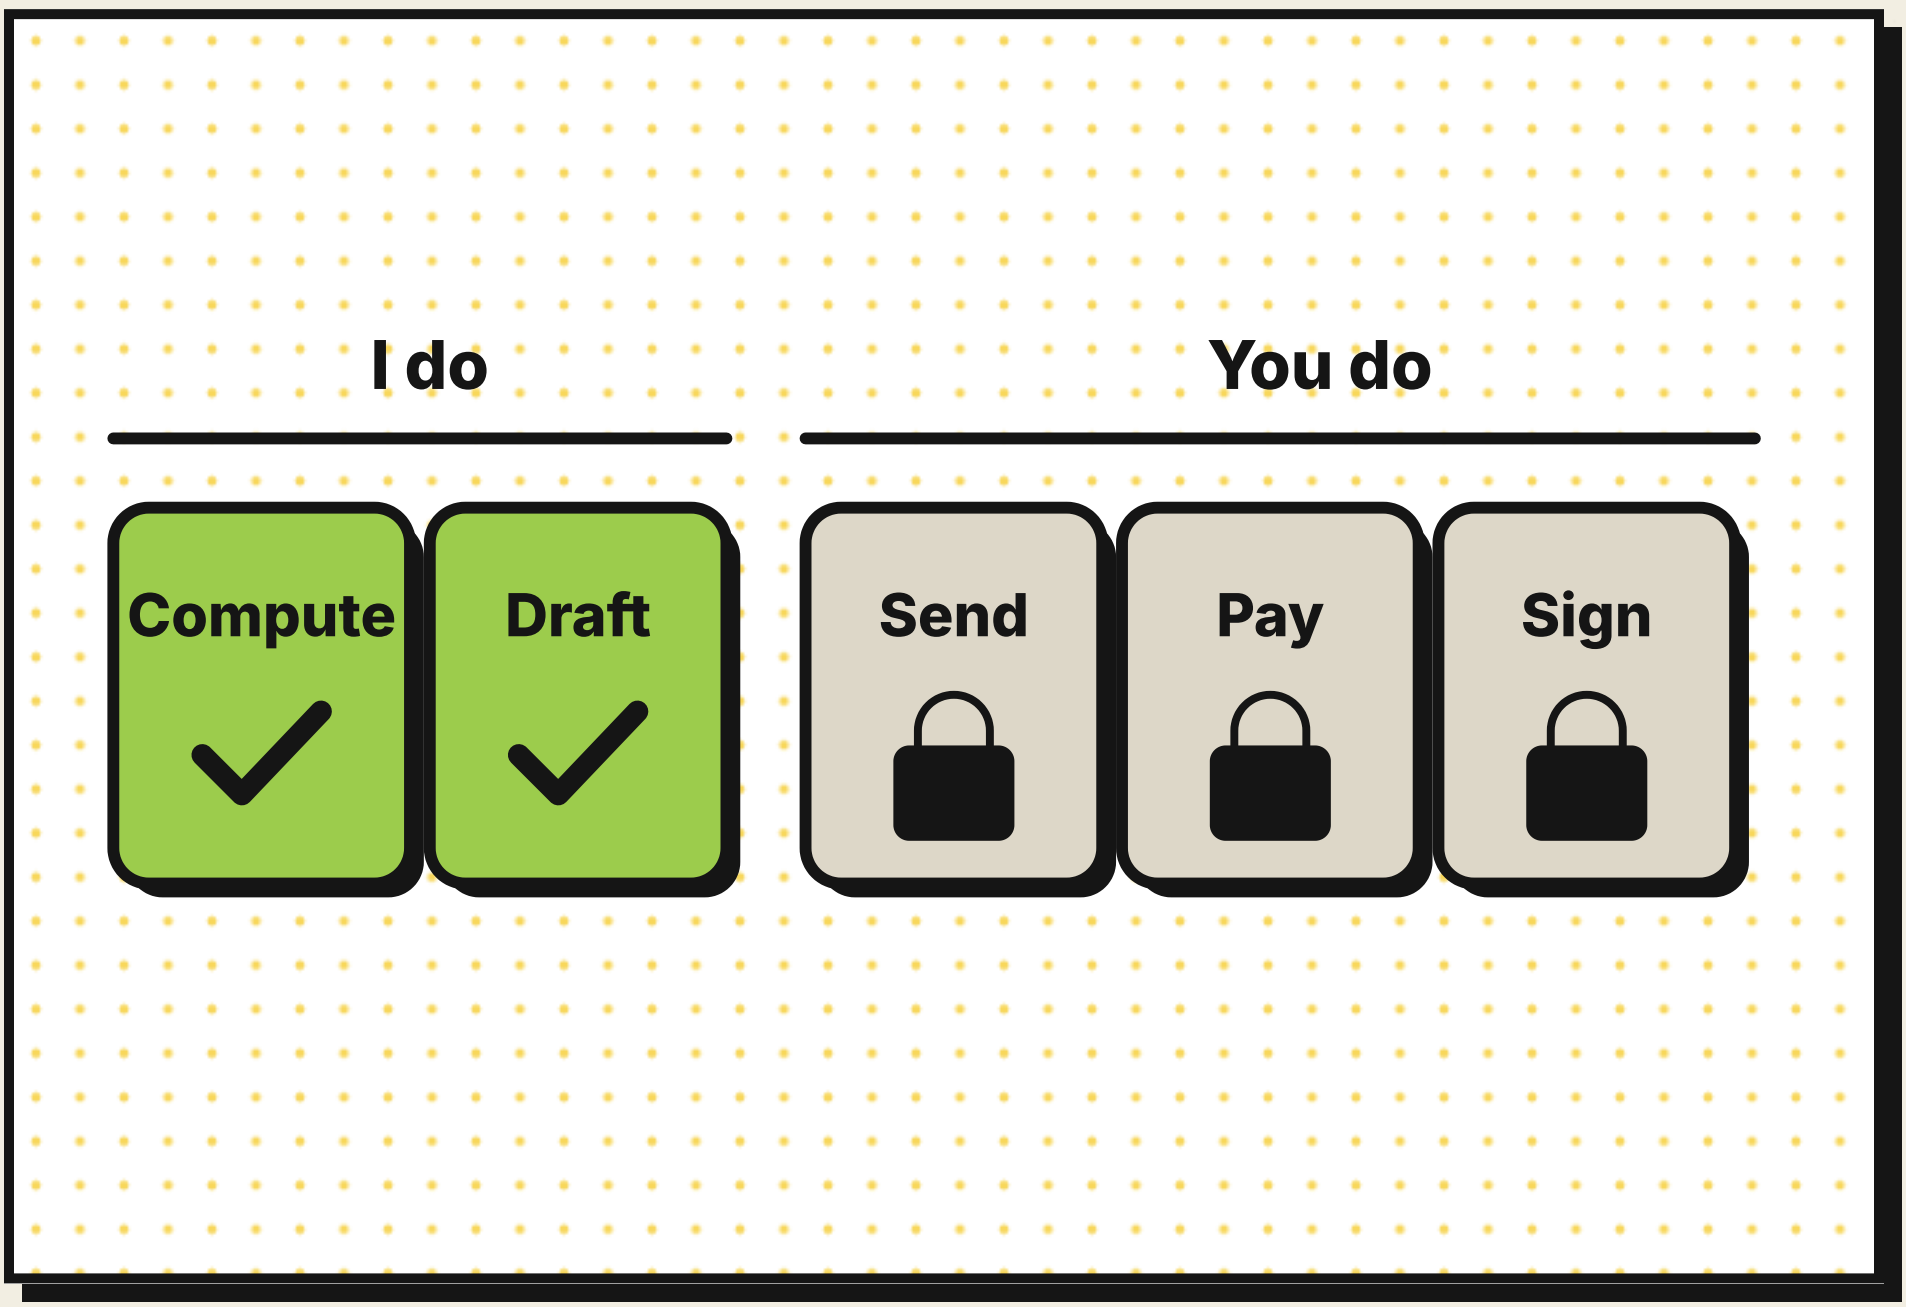

FACT

It carries no liability and can't sign a contract.

MYTH

People assume

“It's autopilot.”

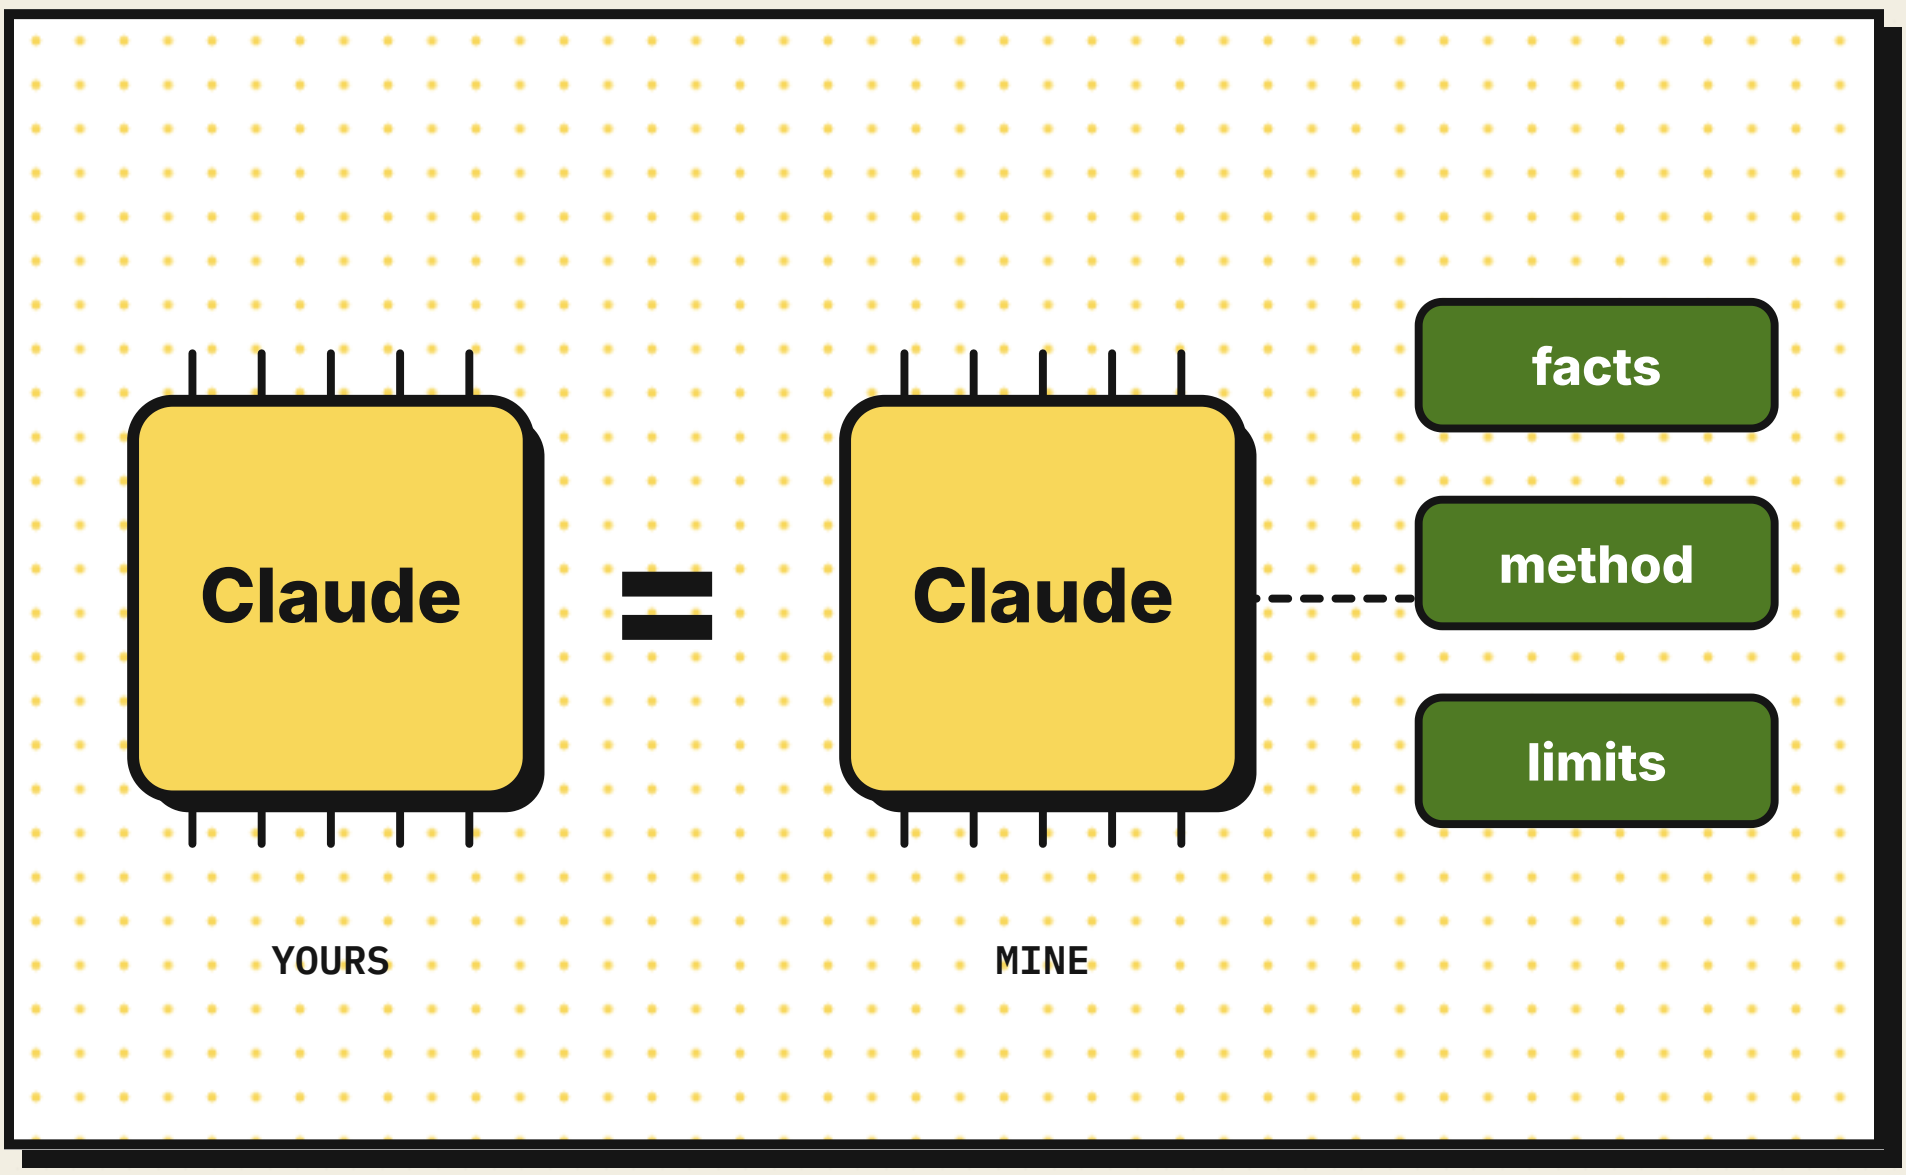

FACT

It computes and drafts. Sending, paying and signing stay with you.

MYTH

People assume

“It's a smarter model.”

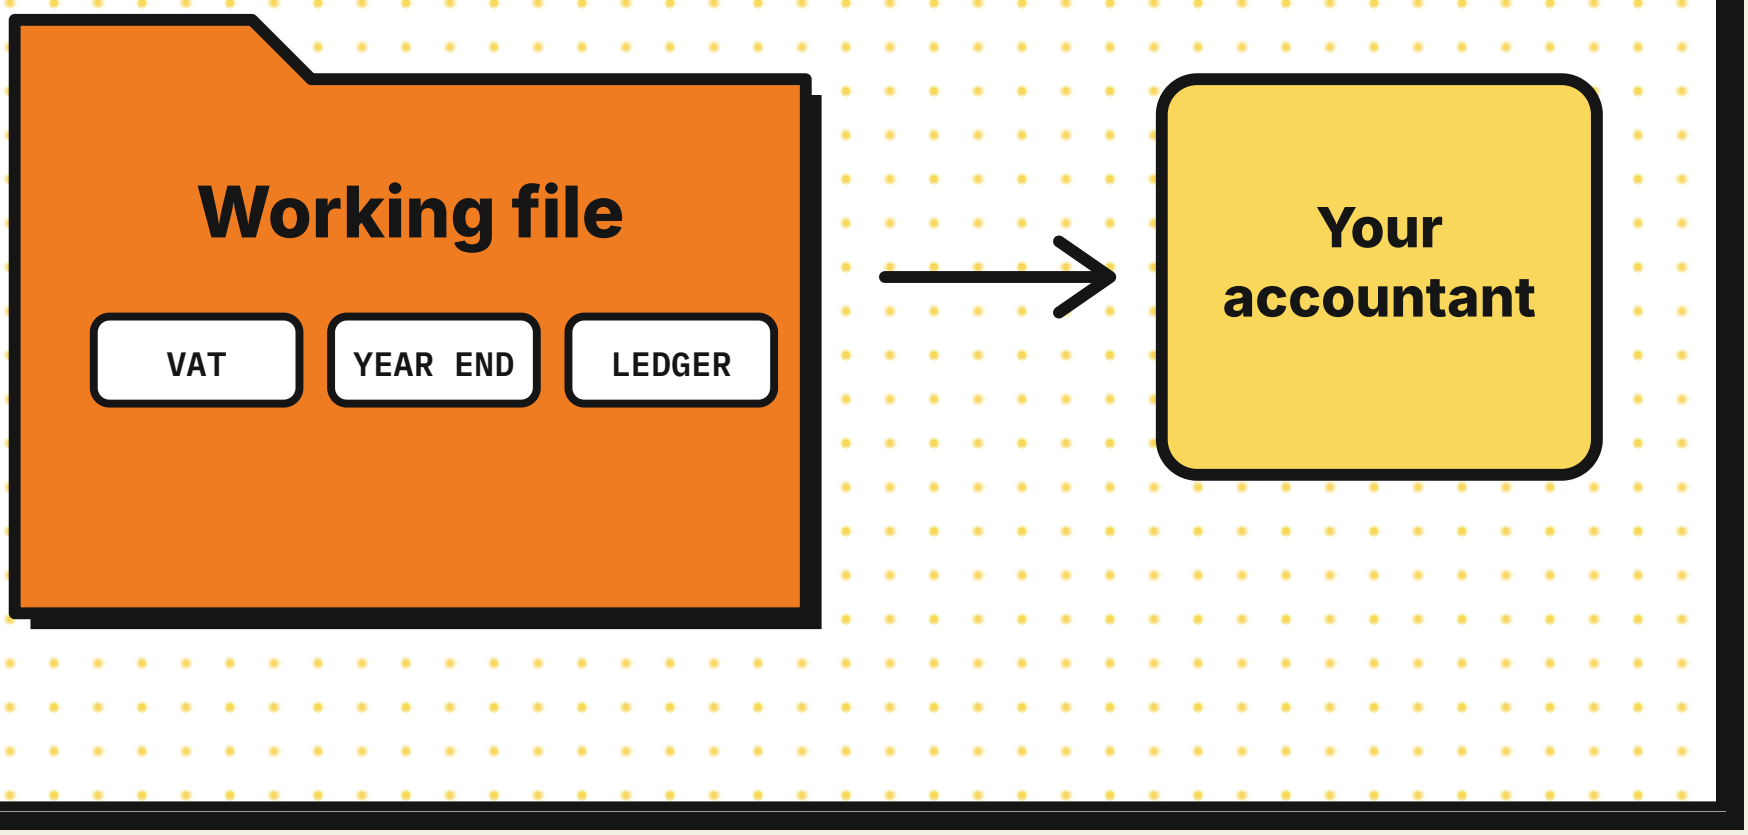

FACT

Same Claude you already have. If Claude were the bottleneck, it wouldn't help.

MYTH

People assume

“It replaces your accountant.”

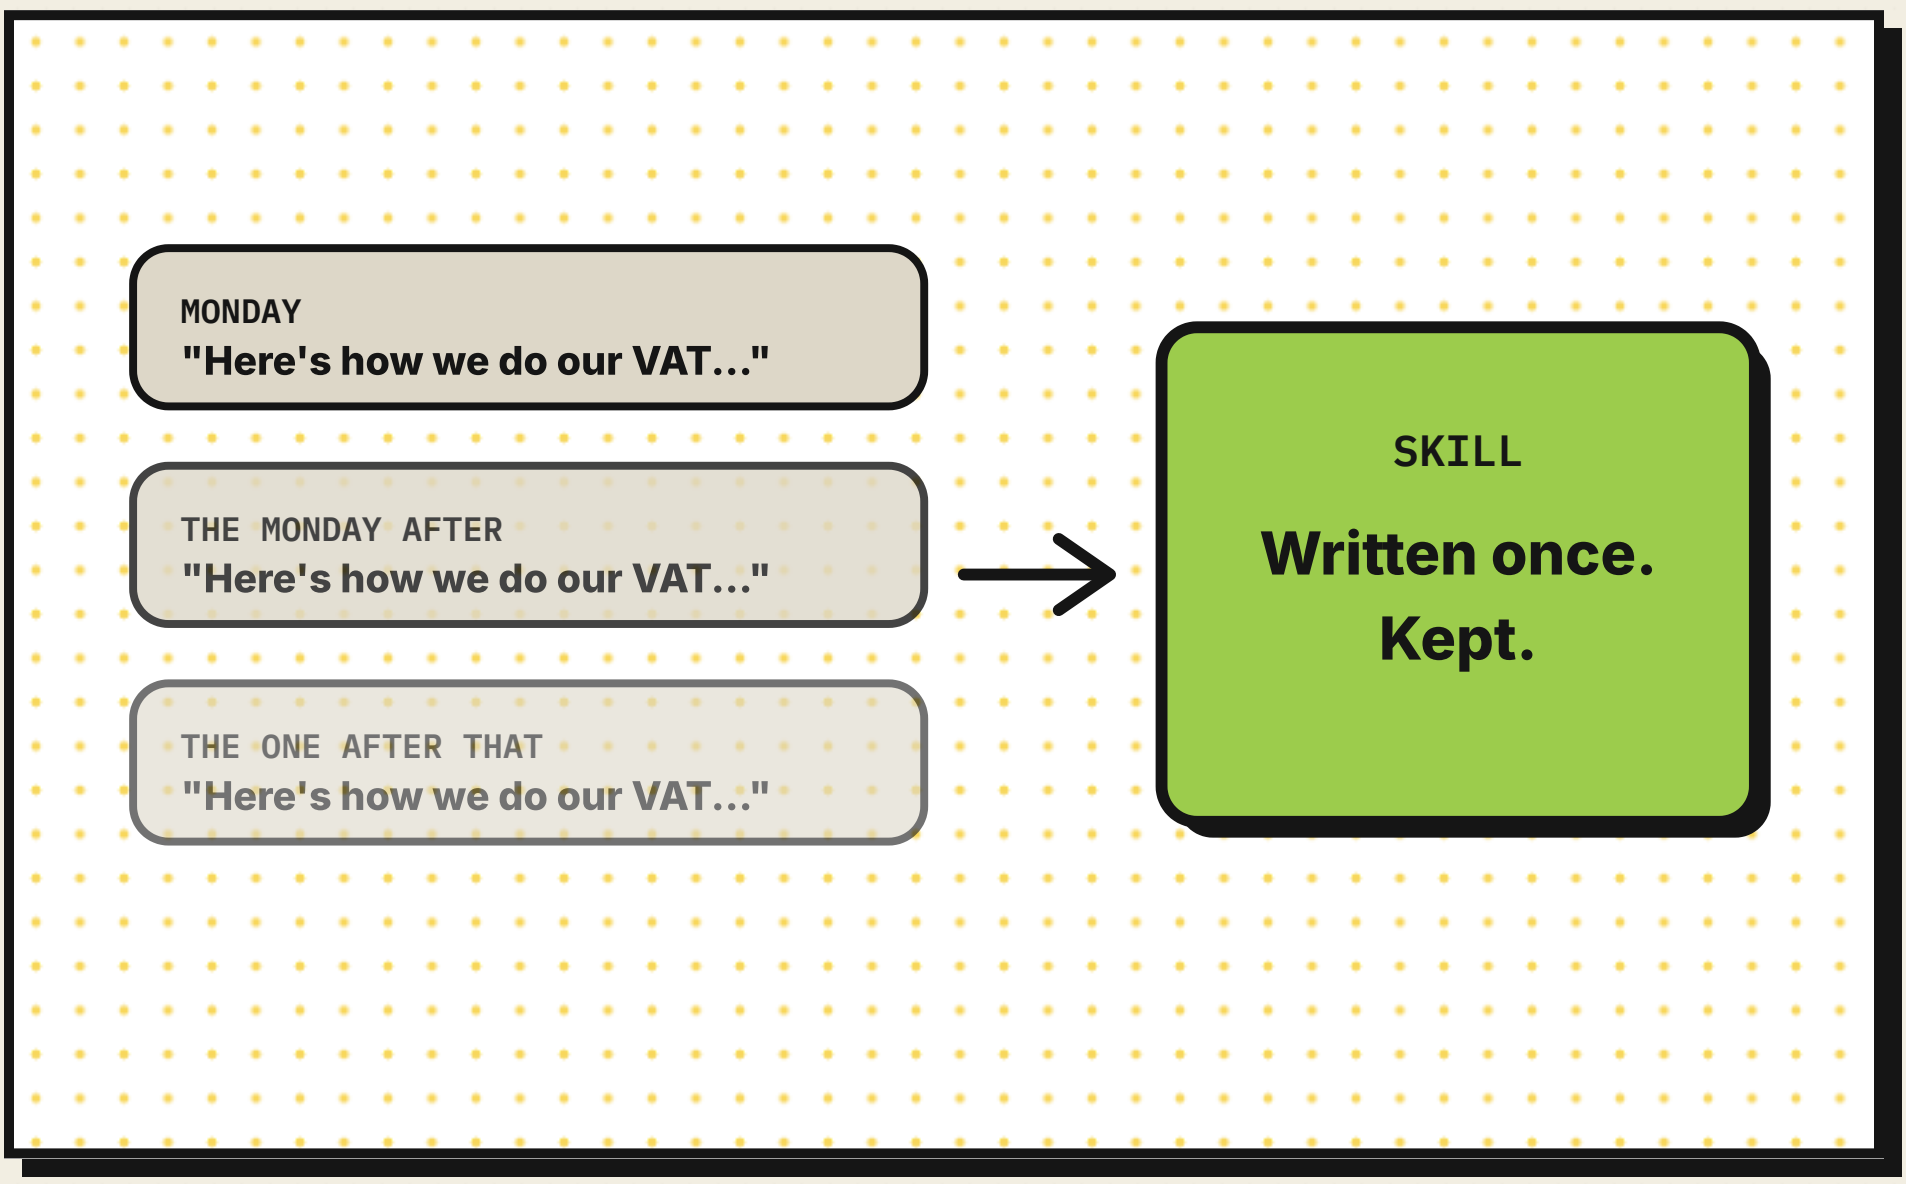

FACT

It's a well-kept working file you bring to them.

MYTH

People assume

“You couldn't just ask Claude.”

FACT

You could. A skill is that typing, done once and kept.

THE MORAL

The half people skip is the half that keeps you safe.
